Three Netted Necklaces

Beadwork

Saturday 9th January

Tutor: Claire Crouchley

Using seed beads, bugles and crystals, learn how to make 3 different necklaces based on traditional East European designs. All materials will be provided to complete all three necklaces. This class is suitable for beginners and up.

Watch out for 'Son of Netted Necklaces' coming later in the year.

Great Oaks From Little Acorns...

Introduction to Goldwork

Saturday 13th February

Tutor: Maria Crouchley

Learn the basic techniques of traditional goldwork by stitching this charming motif. All materials including various metallic and metal threads will be provided. This class is suitable for beginners and up.

The Goddess Within

Bead embroidery

Saturday 13th March

Tutor: Claire Crouchley

Learn a variety of bead embroidery techniques and then apply them to decorate a simple doll form. Let yourself go, and see where the spirit takes you. Although sufficient materials, including doll form, beads and embellishments will be provided, you can also bring any special beads you wish to include.

Welcome to our first session of textile workshops for the year 2010. Workshops are held every second Saturday of the month at Patchings Art Centre.

All workshops gather at 9.45am to start at 10am, and run until 4pm. There will be a break of approximately 1 hour for lunch.

Price for each workshop is £47.50 and this includes all materials required plus tea and coffee throughout the day. There is a café on site, or you may bring your own lunch.
